Importance of Farming Well.

Skillful farmers are aware that the business cannot be profitably cultivated without capital enough to do everything in the best manner. The farmer who has not enough funds on hand to enable him to do this, must therefore submit to the alternative of either being in debt, which ought always to be unpleasant, or else reducing the quantity of his land that he may oband the remedies by which the Whig iron masters tain the means. For we have plenty of instances where two hundred acres badly farmed have not yieldsiness. "naturally diverged," as a friend of ours ed so much clear profit as fifty acres under the best

No. 2 rosin at $1 30 in yard; 500 Wilmington Common, $1 30 delivered; and 1900 do. and 600 North County, about $1 20 in yard.

LIVERPOOL, April 7 .- Cotton-Brown & Shipley's circular states that Cotton since the sailing of the America has been very dull at prices favoring buyers. The sales of the four days were 18,000 bales. On Saturday forenoon the market was quiet and unchanged, and the sales of the day were estimated at 5,080 bales. Breadstuffs—There had been TillE President and Directors of the Literary Fund, have resolved to distribute among the several Counties of the more demand in the Corn market, without any quotable change in prices. Corn was dull at 23s. 6d. a 29s. for yellow, and 30 a 31s. for white. Provisions—Bacon was in good request with a small stock. Lard met with better enquiry at steady rates. Naval Stores-Tar would sell at 11s; application of the persons properly authorized to receive the ommon umber rosin was scarce and had advanced to 4s .-Rice was dull, but not lower. No sales of bark. In tallow open to contracts on easier terms. The Asia's advices had caused a further depression in goods and yarns. Money Market—The revenue returns for the quarter were considered favorable, and had caused an advance of 1 in consols, which closed on the 6th at 98; a 99 for money and account.

HAVANA, April 14.—Sugar.—We place our quotations as follows: Whites 7 a S rls; Yellows 5 a 52 rls; superior Yellows 6 a 6½ rls.; Browns 4¼ a 4½ rls.; Cucuruchos 3 a 3 rls. The last sales of Molasses were at 1½ rls. in the harbon and 11 in the outports. About 390 Casks Rice were placed at 102 rls., partly b retailing, and 360 Casks were stored. Lard has come pretty freely, and is of slow sale at 134 a 134 for Barrel and 142 for Kegs. Lumber was looking up before the hol days, as the imports had been moderate and some wid Boards realized 251 a $26. But several cargoes have arrive during the recess and the price may go lower. Of P. Pina good cargo of Wilmington Plank and Scantling realize $27 and one from Savannah, very well assorted $28. Tw more have arrived from Wilmington and two from Mobil The value of Box Shooks has not improved as yet, sales has ing been made at 61 rls. on credit. Our market has suffere rived. A good many cargoes of Coal arrived, the great part on contract for the Steamboat Companies; the value good Steam Boat may be considered $41 a $5. In Freights but little has been done. We quote in the States 9 rls. per Box of Sugar, $5 per Hhd. in the harbo $5\frac{1}{2} a $5\frac{1}{2} in outports; $2\frac{1}{2} for Molasses. Exchange on London 10 to 10\frac{1}{2} p. ct. prem., New York and Boston 21 a 22 p. ct. discount.
